

NOV 19 1918

Leo, Ernest A.

“BACK
YOUR BOY”

H1646

L

"BACK YOUR BOY"

1st Verse

To far off France and Flanders
We saw our heroes go.
Inspired by brave commanders,
They've crushed the fiendish foe.
They fought for those who love them;
For babies in their nest.
They need our care above them there.
God grant we give our best!

Chorus

Stand back of your soldier.
Then stand back of your boy.
Stand back of the rank and file,
Help them with welcome cheer and
smile
And show them that you're with them,
While they are o'er the foam.
The Yank he'll do his duty there
If we do ours at home!

2d Verse

At home we stand united,
No border, breed nor birth;
Our prayer, that wrongs be righted
And peace remain on earth.
We join our supplications
And to one faith belong,
Forgetting creed in nation's need,
A hundred million strong!

Words by
Henry S. Ely

Back your Boy.

Music by
Ernest A. Leo

VOICE

Moderato

Chorus strict march tempo

not fast

1st time

2d time

D.C.

Copyright 1918 by E. A. Leo - Cedar Rapids, Ia.

"BACK YOUR BOY"

Words by Henry S. Ely

Music by Ernest A. Leo

1st Verse

To far off France and Flanders
We saw our heroes go.
Inspired by brave commanders,
They've crushed the fiendish foe.
They fought for those who love them;
For babies in their nest.
They need our care above them there,
God grant we give our best!

Chorus

Stand back of your soldier.
Then stand back of your boy;
Stand back of the rank and file,
Help them with welcome cheer and
smile
And show them that you're with them,
While they are o'er the foam.
The Yank he'll do his duty there
If we do ours at home!

2d Verse

At home we stand united,
No border, breed nor birth;
Our prayer, that wrongs be righted
And peace remain on earth.
We join our supplications
And to one faith belong,
Forgetting creed in nation's need,
A hundred million strong.

Mals Quartette

Melody in 2^d tenor

1st time

2^d time

Sol - dies boy

Sol - dies boy with rum

Copyright 1918 by E. A. Leo

BACK YOUR BOY

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly a header or introductory paragraph.

A large grid of faint lines forming a table or ledger structure, spanning most of the page width and height.

445567